

20th Annual Summer Institute

2019 Recap
& 2020 Preview

20th Annual Summer Institute

Illuminating Behavioral Health: Exploring New Pathways for Care and Inspiring Breakthroughs

ASU Center for Applied
Behavioral Health Policy
Arizona State University

July 16-19

Flagstaff, AZ

411 Attendees

65 on GOYFF

Scholarships

Thank You

GOYFF and

Parents

Commission

The conference provides a wide variety of educational sessions for today's healthcare and behavioral health professionals and partners.

6 Main Thematic 'Tracks'

- Addressing the Opioid Epidemic
- Substance Use Disorder (SUD) Prevention and Treatment
- Integrated Care
- Workforce Development
- Trauma Informed Approaches
- Working with Special Populations and Conditions

Prevention Focused Topics

The Link between Childhood Trauma and ACEs and Opioid Addiction
– Angie Geren

Guidelines for Creating Effective Substance
Abuse Prevention
Media Campaigns
– Angie Geren

Exploration of the Role of Schools in Treating and Preventing Opioid Addiction
– Rebecca Leimkuehler

Letting Go: A Journey Through Addiction
– Nic Sheff

Exploration of the Role of Faith-Based Communities in Treating and Preventing Opioid Addiction
– Sanghoon Yoo

Trauma and the Brain:
The Developmental Impact of Trauma in Childhood
– Frank Kros

Resiliency-focused Suicide Prevention –
Tally Iskovitz

Professional Demographics

Behavioral Health 52%
Educator/ Trainer 9%
Criminal Justice 4%

Other 30%
Integrated Provider 3%
Healthcare Consulting 2%

“Other” Includes:

- Peer or Family Support Specialists
- Public Safety (Fire or Law Enforcement)
- Crisis Responders
- Healthcare Administration
- Compliance Specialists
- Attorneys & Law
- Community Advocacy

Demographic Characteristics

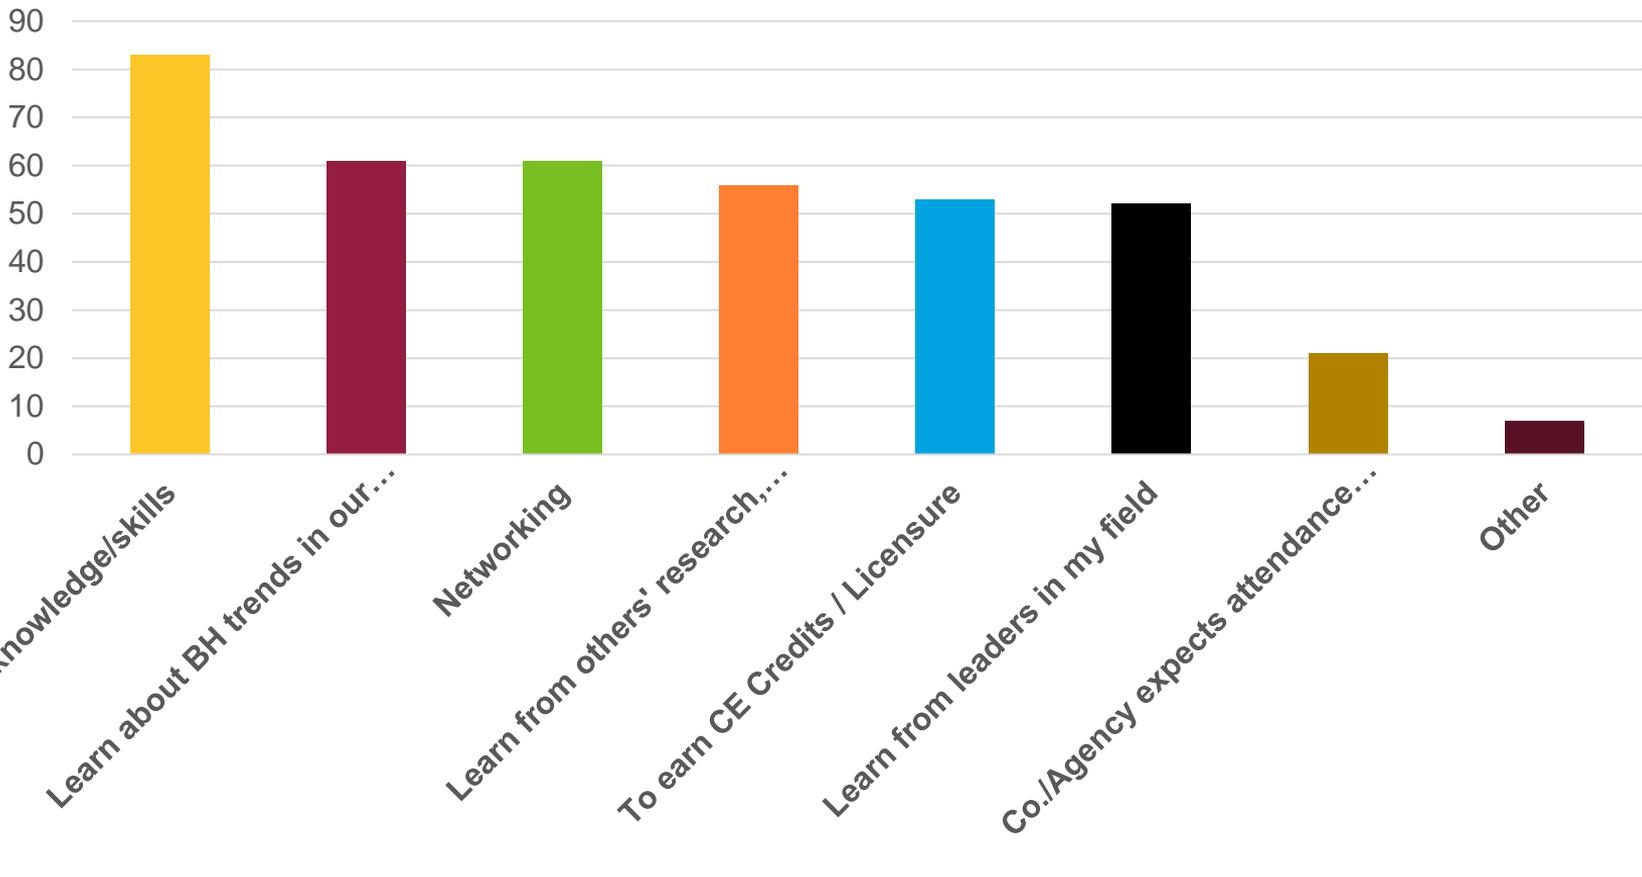

69% Female

33% Hispanic/Latinx

21% American Indian / or Alaskan Native

Why do people attend?

Most Valuable at the Conference

(open ended)

- Self Care/ Mindfulness
- Dr. William Miller
- Frank Kros
- Variety of Speakers
- Inspiring Peer Stories
- Trauma Informed Training
- Networking

2020 - Looking Forward

- Continuum of care
- Underserved populations
- Healthcare policy
- Cross sector partnerships
- Self-care & compassion fatigue
- Drug and alcohol education
- Emerging trends
- Industry revenue and budgeting
- Peer & family support
- Faith-based support
- Recovery
- Healthcare disparities
- Technology and Innovation

What are we missing?

21st Annual
Summer Institute
Behavioral Health Conference

MIND THE GAP

ASU Center for Applied
Behavioral Health Policy
Arizona State University

asusummerinstitute.org

Mind the Gap:

- Continuum of care
- Underserved populations
- Healthcare policy
- Cross sector partnerships
- Self-care & compassion fatigue
- Drug and alcohol education
- Emerging trends
- Industry revenue and budgeting
- Peer & family support
- Faith-based support
- Recovery
- Healthcare disparities
- Technology and Innovation

Thank you!

Contact: Kevin Bushaw
Kevin.Bushaw@asu.edu
602.369.6680

21st Annual
Summer Institute
Behavioral Health Conference

MIND THE GAP

ASU Center for Applied
Behavioral Health Policy
Arizona State University

asusummerinstitute.org